CHRISTIANS

In the New Testament, the disciples of Jesus are described in various ways. Corporately they were known as the church of God (1 Corinthians 1:2), the church of Christ (Romans 16:16), the congregations of the saints (1 Corinthians 14:33), the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ (1 Thessalonians 1:1), or simply the “church” (Acts 12:1). They were also called “the brotherhood of believers” (1 Peter 2:17) and “the people of God” (1 Peter 2:10). Significantly, they were referred to as those “belonging to the Way” (Acts 9:2). Additionally, various images were conveyed in what they were called: Christ’s “body” (1 Corinthians 12:27), God’s “household” or “family” (Ephesians 2:19), and, God’s “spiritual house” (1 Peter 2:5). But none of these were “official” names. Other meaningful designations include children of God (1 John 3:1), saints (Romans 1:7), believers (Acts 5:14), the Lord’s disciples (Acts 9:1).

In Acts 11, we find a description that has lasted throughout the centuries until today: Christians. “The disciples were first called Christians at Antioch”(Acts 11:26).

The Antioch church was a mission-minded church. It became the sponsoring church for Paul’s missionary journeys: commissioning Paul and Barnabas on their first journey in Acts 13. It is not surprising, therefore, that the Holy Spirit selected Barnabas to accompany Paul – since Barnabas was well respected in the Jerusalem church and had gone out of his way to accept Paul into the fellowship of disciples even as others were reluctant and suspicious of him. It is in Antioch, prior to the first missionary journey, that members of the church first wore the name Christians.

I am especially thankful for this designation because it involves wearing the very name of our Lord Jesus Christ. What a privilege! What a responsibility! Privilege: What an honor it is to wear Christ’s name, to make known to others that I serve him, obey him, and love him. Responsibility: What a sacred trust it is to wear Christ’s name: to behave Christianly, to speak Christianly, to live among others as Christ’s servants.

Of all the Bible words used to describe the early disciples, I am thankful that the disciples were first called Christians at Antioch. As I wear Jesus’ name, I am daily reminded of the privilege and responsibility of doing so.
