

ANNOUNCEMENT FROM OUR ELDERS

In order to comfortably accommodate our worship attendance and still meet CDC distancing guidelines, we will be having two Sunday morning services in the main auditorium. The first service is at 8 AM and the second at 10 AM. If you would prefer, we are still doing the online stream of the service @ 10 AM. Our Wednesday service will be at 6:30, with Bible classes for the kids. Grades 3 & up please wear mask.

Due to the present health crisis, if you plan to attend, we ask you to read the Arkansas State Health Dept. guidelines @ <https://www.healthy.arkansas.gov/programs-services/topics/covid-19-guidance-for-faith-based-organizations> and do your best to comply with these guidelines.

In the Auditorium, there will be only two doorways for entry and exit. These will be the main doorway facing Walnut Street and the breezeway door that accesses the lower parking lot. The doorway at the front of the auditorium will be for emergency exiting only. No childcare will be provided at this time, and we ask that you do not enter the educational wing of the building. Please strive to maintain 6 feet distancing between family groups as you enter and exit the building. Due to the physical distancing guidelines, you may be asked to sit away from your usual area of the auditorium so that there is room for everyone. There will be elders and deacons to assist you with entry, seating and exiting worship.

Individual communion packets can be picked up in the foyer as you enter the building. Offering plates will be available for giving in the foyer as you exit. If you have existing health problems or are over 65 years of age, then group worship may put your health at risk. If you have questions about this, please consult with your healthcare provider to see if attendance is safe for you at this time.

No. 50

December 9, 2020

The New Year gives an opportunity to put into place new, healthful habits. Knowing that the word of God is “living and active”, “penetrates” our souls, and “judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart” (Hebrews 4:12), we would do well to put daily Bible reading on our list of 2021 healthful habits. Over the next few weeks, we will examine various translations of the Bible. As we consider them, I encourage you to choose one (or a variety of them) that is right for you. It is important to remember that every English Bible is a translation -- translated from Greek (NT) or Hebrew (OT) into English. These English translations took place at various times throughout history and the “flavor of English” used reflects the times of the translation. In addition, some translators prefer a word-for-word philosophy, others a meaning-for-meaning philosophy, and still others a blending of the two philosophies. Let’s consider the King James Bible.

No book in the English language has ever been more influential than the King James Version of the Bible (KJV). It easily outstrips any other claimant for the most often printed, most widely distributed and read book in English; it is said that to date 6 billion copies have been printed, outdistancing Shakespeare (who comes in as N°2). Until the arrival of the KJV, Christians had first to contend with the Vulgate, St Jerome’s Latin translation of the end of the 4th Century. This meant that average Christians could not access the Bible for themselves, always needing a priest as go-between and explainer. This situation lasted right up until the 16th Century in England, when, during the time of King Henry VIII (who occasionally took time off from battling his marital situation!), a version of the Bible, usually referred to as the Great Bible, was current. This had been preceded by Wycliffe’s 15th Century and Tyndale’s 16th Century translations. All of these versions had their drawbacks however, leading to a text that was far removed and changed through countless re-interpretations without recourse to the original Hebrew or Greek. Finally, in 1604, King James 1 of England, the son of the famous Mary, Queen of Scots, convened the top scholars of the land to start from scratch. Three panels translated the Old Testament from the original Hebrew and Aramaic, and two the New Testament from the original Greek. These 47 men brought into being the most majestic, most poetic and arguably most beautiful writing to appear in our native tongue. Thus, the Authorized Version of the Bible saw the light of day in 1611; it was revised in 1769. It is this 1769 version that most people are familiar with today: its balanced sentences, rich vocabulary and weighty grammar have imprinted themselves on all of our minds, profoundly influencing Christian as well as non-Christian speakers. What could be more beautiful than this: (Psalm 139) Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence? If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there. If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea; Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me. If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me. Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to thee. Spectacular, memorable, impressive and moving - these phrases can arguably not be bettered.

Bible Reading Resolution

Most of us "cut our teeth" on the King James Version of the Bible and it continues as beloved throughout the world. Regardless of which translation is chosen, may we commit ourselves to more healthful Bible-reading habits in 2021.
