BIG NEWS STORIES

Vacation Bible School will be here before we know it. We have shifted some things this year so that VBS runs from Thursday to Saturday. We will also be offering a meal for the kids before VBS each night and concluding on Saturday night with a VBS carnival. We have slowly been piecing together all of our helpers and creators, but we still have many jobs to fill. I will be asking for volunteers to fill specific roles over the course of the next few weeks on our various facebook pages. If you have any desire to help in some way, you may also catch me and let me know how you would like to help.

This year, we complete a three-year series of walking kids through the Bible story. So, we have now entered into the New Testament to capture the greater picture of God's ultimate plan. We will learn about the birth, life, and death of Jesus, His resurrection, and the life of the early church as they lived in joyful anticipation for Jesus's return.

Northside has been putting together some wonderful Vacation Bible Schools, and I believe this year will be no different.
