THANK YOU, NORTHSIDE!

VBS is now over, but the show will go on. With every activity, if that might be for education, for spiritual growth, for fellowship, or for any other reason, Northside continues to show diligent effort.

An incredible number of people were involved with Vacation Bible School, as is normally the case. Some of these efforts were very noticeable like decorations, child interaction, leading groups, teaching classes, etc. At the same time, there were as many behind-the-scenes jobs that were accomplished to make our VBS a success: preparation of crafts, organizing service projects, collecting and distributing snacks, setting up the carnival, etc. Every job, whether big or small, was a necessary part. For that reason, we want you all to know how proud we are of our Northside family and how thankful we are of your graciousness.

We averaged around 70 kids each night and had approximately 100 teens and adults. For the service projects, the kids prepared about 70 bags for Three Wishes for Ruby, 80 Blessing Bags, 80 cards for shut-ins, and prepared about 40 bags for the pantry.

On one last note, I also want parents of the children to know how wonderful your kids were. We had a lot of fun with them and they were simply delightful to lead through VBS.
