If The Lord Permits

"I hope to spend some time with you, if the Lord permits" (1 Corinthians 16:8).

Paul's Plans

Paul wrote 1 Corinthians while staying in the city of Ephesus during his third missionary journey, around A.D. 54–55. The church in Corinth had sent Paul a letter asking questions about marriage, food sacrificed to idols, spiritual gifts, the resurrection, and other issues (1 Corinthians 7:1). Paul also had received troubling reports from Chloe's household about divisions and immorality in the church (1 Corinthians 1:11). In the concluding words of the letter, Paul writes about his plans in the upcoming months, stating his desire to travel to Corinth for a lengthy visit "If The Lord Permits." This phrase is an important one. Although Paul made plans for his life and work, he always left room for God to change and adapt his plans. Paul lived with an "If The Lord Permits" attitude.

My Plans

Living with a "If The Lord Permits" attitude is right for the Christian. We are not called to passivity, that much is clear. The Christian does not, must not, drift through life expecting things to fall into place. In Luke 14:28 Jesus himself speaks of the planning necessary to build a tower. So there is nothing un-Christian about researching and making plans. The thing is, though, that the Christian must always be alert to the voice of God working through the experience of carrying out one's plans, and through the contributions and suggestions of others. We should not be so fixed on our plans as to be completely inflexible. In James 4:14-15 we are reminded of the importance of humility and openness "If the Lord wills...." And let us always remember Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane before the crucifixion: "Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done." (Luke 22:42 KJV). Let us always remember that God does not treat us as puppets. He works through our decisions, our efforts, our encounters, and even our mistakes. So, summing up, may we pray as follows: "Lord, here is my plan. If it is good, bless it; if it is not, change it. Make me attentive to your will."

It is good for us to have plans and dreams for our lives. It is also good for us to live with an "If The Lord Permits" attitude: leaving room for God's providence to change and adapt our plans.

FCL Art: Mixed Media "David and Goliath" by Ryben Braswell

" As the Philistine moved closer to attack him, David ran quickly toward the battle line to meet him. Reaching into his bag and taking out a stone, he slung it and struck the Philistine on the forehead. The stone sank into his forehead, and he fell facedown on the ground.

So David triumphed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone; without a sword in his hand he struck down the Philistine and killed him."

~1 Samuel 17:48-49 (NIV)

To all our Northside brothers and sisters in Christ,
Thank you ALL for the many years of joy, kindness, comfort, and faithful worship we shared together. We love you all deeply and feel truly blessed to have called Northside our home. It will always hold a special place in our hearts.

We plan to visit whenever we can, and pray that God
continues to richly bless the congregation at Northside.
We hope to see you at events like PTP and Show Me State lectureships. Please keep in touch!

In Christian love,
Lee & Rosie Campbell
