Dorcas (Tabitha)
“In Joppa there was a disciple named Tabitha (which, when translated, is Dorcas), who was always doing good and helping the poor” (Acts 9:36).
She was a disciple.
A disciple is someone who believes in and adheres to the teachings of another. We can speak of ‘disciples of Freud’, for example - they are those that have read his teachings and who believe in the ideas he put forward. This is true for us Christians also, of course : we believe in Christ, talk to him through prayer and lead our lives according to his precepts. But there is much more to being a disciple of Christ : like Dorcas, we are required to put our beliefs into practice, and we must love God more than any other person, idea or ideology. Dorcas was just such a person - not only was she a disciple in the way her male colleagues were, she quietly went about using the skills God had given her (as a seamstress) and made clothes for the poor. She put her beliefs into practice; and in so doing, she was loved and honored by all those around her. She was surely a truly happy person (as described in my lesson of Sunday 31st October). We are happiest when we are acting for God, fulfilling our potentials to the best of our ability. Let us, like Dorcas, use our God-given skills in his service, and so make others happy as well as ourselves
She was always doing good and helping the poor.
The Bible reader is immediately impressed with the words used to describe Dorcas. Not only was she one who did good deeds and lovingly cared for the needs of the poor, she always did these things -- they were the pattern of her life.
God is lovingly concerned for the weak and powerless. The Scriptures describe God as a “father to the fatherless, a defender of widows” (Psalm 68:5). As disciples we also ought to have hearts touched by the needs and infirmities of others. Elaborating on this truth, James writes, “Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world” (James 1:27). Dorcas stands out as an example of Christian servanthood that is a model for all disciples to emulate.

Dorcas (Tabitha)

She touched many people's lives.

When acting for God, we come into contact with others and form a community of like-minded people. Northside is a family, and we are blessed to be able to call our fellow members our church family. This is how it was with Dorcas. I like to imagine that her personality shone out of her eyes and her very presence, such that the people around her truly loved her. They were devastated at her death, and it was no doubt in order to help her companions that Peter restored Dorcas to her earthly life. She was a central figure for many, a model they looked up to. And so can we. May we be inspired by this person, do our best for Christ, and touch the lives of those around us in a similar way.
