Mystery Mission Trip 2019

On Thursday morning, July 11, seventeen of us set out on our second Mystery Mission Trip. Five adults, eleven teens, and our Jaycee. For the teens, the entire trip was a mystery. They never knew where we would go, where we would stop, or where we would end up. There were surprises around every corner—even the unexpected for those who knew the plan. Every step of our journey was intended to be in rhythm with the missional story of God, which, if you know your Bibles, you understand how God’s story was a mystery of ages now revealed to us in Christ.

Along the way, we experienced such sites as The Well Coffee House in Downtown Nashville, TN, the Ark Encounter in Kentucky, George Washington’s original headquarters in Cumberland, MA, Gettysburg battlefield, the 9/11 Memorial in New York City, Hershey World in PA, and the Gateway Arch in St. Louis, MO. We learned of certain ministries like Aggos, a social media platform for churches of Christ, how a non-profit coffee house is drilling wells in third world countries, and how big city churches minister in multi-racial and multi-cultural urban settings. Much of this is fun, yet the intent is very real—to expose our young people to ministries, diverse cultures, and as important as anything, what it means to live in the missional story of God. You might think of it is an intense learning experience in the form of a travelling Bible camp.

Our primary missional point of interest was the Timothy Hill Children’s Ranch in Riverhead, NY on Long Island. For three days, our team worked impressively hard in various maintenance tasks while also being a light of encouragement to the 50+ residents there. I could not have been more proud of our team and the example they left. And you have every reason to proud of how they represented Northside everywhere we went.

Our trip is now over, but as we discussed at our last stop in the shadow of the Arch in St. Louis, our journey continues. It is with hopeful prayer that our trip has become a gateway into our team’s expanding role in the missional story of God. Thank you all for your many prayers and the many ways that you have helped us make this a worthwhile experience in the name of our Messiah, Jesus. – Jason

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

Meet the Ragland family, Jeremy, Laura and their 3 children, Trenton, Cason and Reagan. They started attending Northside because of Northside's 6th grade and under ministry. One day they would love to take a family vacation "out west" to see Yellow Stone, Mount Rushmore, the Rocky Mountains and more. Jeremy and Laura have different ideas of what their dream vacation would be. Laura's would be a beach vacation 30 minutes from home and Jeremy's would be a trip to whatever city the Razorback football team was playing for the national title in.
