ISSUE NO. 3

"I am the Good Shepherd"

John 10:11, 14

*"I am the good shepherd;
 I know my sheep
 and my sheep know me (14)."*

The good shepherd.

The shepherd imagery is one that spoke effectively to First-Century listeners. Many of the hearers would be familiar with hills full of sheep, many of them perhaps shepherds themselves. For us today, understanding shepherding takes additional thought. To know what it is to be a good shepherd, it is helpful to examine Ezekiel 34, outlining what it is to be a bad one. The leaders of Israel (shepherds, leaders) were neglectful and negligent shepherds. In Ezekiel 34, God condemns Israel's shepherds (leaders) for: feeding themselves, abandoning the weak, and letting the flock scatter.

I know my sheep and my sheep know me.

The thing about sheep is that they are conservative animals – most domestic or semi-domestic animals like routine, and sheep are no exception. They follow each other; and they recognize the voice of their shepherd. They willingly follow the shepherd they know and trust, but they do not follow strangers. What is more, although to an outsider a flock of sheep looks pretty uniform, a good shepherd will know each sheep individually, by name, and establish a personal relationship with it. So, each flock consists not of nameless animals, but of willing and loved individuals. And so it is between us and Jesus, the Good Shepherd.

UPCOMING YOUTH EVENTS

POSTPONED TO NEXT WEEKEND 1/30-2/1

Y.O.U. in Conway

Northside,

Approximately 20 years ago Northside asked me to serve as an elder for this congregation. I consider that a great honor and do not take that responsibility lightly.

Eccl. 3:1 "There is a time for everything, and season for every activity under the heavens."

So, to the congregation I say, "There is a time for me to be an elder and a time to step down." Today, I am letting you know that I am stepping down from the eldership.

But first to this congregation: "I can't say enough good things about you as fellowship of Christians. Your willingness to work and accomplish tasks for the LORD. Your spirit and faithfulness are visible throughout the community and reach many places beyond our national borders. Please continue to grow in evangelism, faith and the knowledge and understanding of His Word."

Please know it has been my privilege and pleasure to serve with this group of elders as they strive to lead and nurture this congregation in spirit and understanding by adhering to God's word.

I only ask that there be no fanfare as Jo and I continue our fellowship here at Northside.

Numbers 6: 24-26: "The LORD bless you and keep you: The LORD make his fact to shine upon you and be gracious unto you. The LORD lift his countenance upon you and give you peace."

Announcements

WINTER WEATHER REMINDER

Our building will be open at our regular meeting times for those who wish to worship and study together regardless of the weather conditions. We encourage members to use their own best judgment as to whether the local roads, as well as our sidewalks and parking lot, will allow safe attendance.

Gladys Aiken

Our sympathy is extended to Lisa and Jim Johnson and their family in the passing of Lisa's mother, Gladys (Gigi) Aiken. Both the visitation and memorial will be held at Northside. The visitation will be Thursday, January 29th from 5-7 PM. The memorial service will be on Friday, January 30th, at 10 AM.

To our church family,

Thank you for always showing up for us in a big way. From the beautiful cradle shower, gifts, prayers, and the love always shown to our family. We are blessed and excited to welcome our third baby girl soon. We would love the continued prayers as that day is quickly approaching.

In Christian love,
Daniel, Vanessa, Arabella, & Adeline Lance
