

We are having services at the church Sunday's @ 10 am
If you would prefer, we are still doing the online stream of the service @ 10 am and a Bible study @ 11am.
Our Wednesday service will continue to be online only.

Worshipping Together

Northside will meet at 10 am Sunday mornings. We will stream the service live on FB and Steve will do a Bible study afterward at 11 am. Wednesday's service will remain online.

"Due to the present health crisis. If you plan to attend, we ask you to read the Arkansas State Health Dept. guidelines at <https://www.healthy.arkansas.gov/programs-services/topics/covid-19-guidance-for-faith-based-organizations> and do your best to comply with these guidelines."

There will be only two doorways for entry and exit. These will be the main doorway facing Walnut Street and the breezeway door that accesses the lower parking lot. The doorway at the front of the auditorium will be for emergency exiting only. No childcare will be provided at this time and we ask that you do not enter the educational wing of the building. Please strive to maintain 6 feet distancing between family groups as you enter and exit the building. Due to the physical distancing guidelines, you may be asked to sit away from your usual area of the auditorium so that there is room for everyone. If there is a need for overflow seating, this will be provided in the fellowship building with a livestream of our worship there. There will be elders and deacons to assist you with entry, seating and exiting worship.

Individual communion packets can be picked up in the foyer as you enter the building. Offering plates will be available for giving in the foyer as you exit.

If you have existing health problems or are over 65 years of age, then group worship may put your health at risk. If you have questions about this, please consult with your healthcare provider to see if attendance is safe for you at this time. We will continue to live stream our worship service for those who need to remain at home for now.

James Wilson

Thomas Jefferson, John Adams, Benjamin Franklin, John Hancock -- we know these men. They were Founding Fathers and signers of the Declaration of Independence. But, did you know that there were fifty-six (56) signers of the declaration? Many of these declaration signers you have probably never heard of played vital roles in the founding of our nation. James Wilson is one of those men.

Wilson was one of the first 6 justices appointed to the Supreme Court by Washington.

He spoke the language of the Boston Tea Party: No taxation without representation! He argued that the British Parliament had no authority to pass laws for the American Colonies because the colonists had no say in the decision making.

Scholars consider Wilson's work to be on a par with that of Thomas Jefferson and John Adams of the same year (1774).

Wilson refused to cast his vote in the Continental Congress until he had caucused his district. Only after he received more feedback did he vote for independence.

Wilson virtually single-handedly designed the presidency: the president would represent all American people in friendship and respect, and he would be 'energetic, independent and accountable'. Wilson never imagined a system of bitterly polarized political parties. The president should be a man of the people who embodied the public good; transparency was assured by the president being a highly visible national leader, as opposed to numerous largely anonymous congressmen.

Though unknown to our modern times, James Wilson's work continues to be known in the fabric of our nation's founding. A willingness to put his name on the line for what he believed. A desire to listen to the people and seek their input. A vision for leadership that is vibrant and good at its core. This is the legacy of James Wilson.

I am always amazed at the behind-the-scenes people who step onto the world stage and vanish unremembered. These are my heroes. The church, yes even the world, needs more people willing to live quiet and peaceful lives -- doing the works of God. Their deeds may be forgotten by men, but never forgotten by our Heavenly Father.
