No. 28

July 8, 2020

Unless you have been totally isolated the last few months, other than from the fear of Covid-19, you know what BLM stands for. “Black Lives Matter” is a slogan that has come to the fore front of our country. Although the movement has been happening for some time, it has ramped up following the death of George Floyd. Many have responded to the phrase “Black Lives Matter” with other phrases, such as “All lives Matter” or “White Lives Matter” or many other phrases. There have also been protests to bring to our attention what people are seeing as injustice or not equal justice for black people in this country. No matter what your personal thoughts are concerning this movement, as a Christian and as a Church we all have a responsibility for our fellow man. I am reminded of the early Christians and how they handled a similar problem. The story is found in Acts 6. It concerns a group of people whose loved ones were being treated differently than others. These were what the bible called Hellenistic Jews, that were complaining that the daily distribution of food was not equal for their loved ones. Their widows were actually being starved because of who they were. These Hellenistic Jews were Jewish Christians that had come from a different culture than the Jewish Christians that were still in Jerusalem at the time. They had been raised with a Greek influence and surrounded by all the Greek gods and even spoke a different language. They had moved back to Jerusalem and were depending upon the church and Christians there for spiritual and physical needs. This had all occurred for one reason. Acts 6:1 “At this time the while the number of disciples were increasing”. The growth of the church, the spreading of the gospel, the caring for the needs of others during great persecution of the church was amazing and then a problem even during that great growth came forth. A dispute arose. I wonder how heated the conversations became between early Christians as they had to deal with this problem? The text does not say, but if I look at today’s issues, I would say they were not much different from us other than they did not have social media to voice their thoughts on. So how was the problem solved? Did the Christians in Jerusalem respond by saying Hey “All Jews Matter”? No, to do so would have simply been a way of dismissing the problem so they came up with a solution. The Twelve, had the groups come together and appoint spiritual, respected men to make sure the Christians were not being overlooked in this ministry. Now if you look at the list of men picked there was a man named Nicolas a Gentile convert at a time when the Jews and Gentiles were still not getting along

BLM

I will just let you think on that. But here is the key point to the story, Acts 6:7” The word of God kept on spreading; and the number of the disciples continued to increase greatly in Jerusalem, and a great many of the priests were becoming obedient to the faith.” The Goal remained the goal for the church even in times of dispute. I continue to remind myself of what Jesus said when asked by intelligent men what is the greatest command. Matthew 22:37 And He said to him, “‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.’ 38 This is the great and foremost commandment. 39 The second is like it, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ 40 On these two commandments depend the whole Law and the Prophets.”

NEWS & EVENTS

WORSHIPING TOGETHER

Northside will meet at 10 am Sunday mornings. We will stream the service live on FB and Steve will do a Bible study afterward at 11 am. Wednesday's service will remain online.

Due to the present health crisis. If you plan to attend, we ask you to read the Arkansas State Health Dept. guidelines that are on the back of the bulletin and do your best to comply with these guidelines.

There will be only two doorways for entry and exit. These will be the main doorway facing Walnut Street and the breezeway door that accesses the lower parking lot. The doorway at the front of the auditorium will be for emergency exiting only. No childcare will be provided at this time and we ask that you do not enter the educational wing of the building. Please strive to maintain 6 feet distancing between family groups as you enter and exit the building. Due to the physical distancing guidelines, you may be asked to sit away from your usual area of the auditorium so that there is room for everyone. If there is a need for overflow seating, this will be provided in the fellowship building with a livestream of our worship there. There will be elders and deacons to assist you with entry, seating and exiting worship.

Individual communion packets can be picked up in the foyer as you enter the building. Offering plates will be available for giving in the foyer as you exit.

If you have existing health problems or are over 65 years of age, then group worship may put your health at risk. If you have questions about this, please consult with your healthcare provider to see if attendance is safe for you at this time. We will continue to live stream our worship service for those who need to remain at home for now.
