FAITHFULNESS

Faithfulness is a recurring theme in the letter of 1 Corinthians. Twice, faithfulness is ascribed to God and twice faithfulness is ascribed to man's response to God's faithfulness. Why is faithfulness an important theme in the Corinthian letter?

The Corinthian church was fraught with problems. Division and issues stemming from the immoral urban culture of Corinth plagued the church. If the church was to survive and remain healthy, it was imperative that they rely fully upon God's promise of faithfulness to them.

God's Faithfulness

The infant church in Corinth experienced particular problems, perhaps because it was a hub of international trade, with people of different cultures, languages and religions passing through. In his Corinthians letter, Paul deals with ten problems in turn. Essentially the solution is the same for each of them : look in the gospel and as a consequence live a humble, obedient and pure life. God sees all and will remain faithful. One example : Some Corinthian Christians were bringing lawsuits against one another (1 Cor 6:1-11). Paul's gospel solution : "Don't wrong and defraud your own brothers, because the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God. God has now washed, sanctified, and justified you in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by God's Spirit."

1:9 God is faithful, who has called you into fellowship with his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. 10:13 No temptation has overtaken you except what is common to mankind. And God is faithful; he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, he will also provide a way out so that you can endure it. (10:13)

Our Faithfulness

4:2 Now it is required that those who have been given a trust must prove faithful.

4:17 For this reason I have sent to you Timothy, my son whom I love, who is faithful in the Lord. He will remind you of my way of life in Christ Jesus, which agrees with what I teach everywhere in every church.

In Chapter 4 Paul clearly states his determination to be faithful to the trust given to him as a courier of the gospel. Just as God is faithful to his promise to "keep them strong to the end (1:8)", Paul pledges a similar promise to fulfill his role as teacher and evangelist. Later in the chapter, Paul presents Timothy as another faithful worker in God's church who he describes as "faithful in the Lord (4:17)". Let's let Timothy be our model as a way of responding to the faithfulness of God.

HELP NEEDED

We are in need of help in the nursery .

PLEASE SIGN-UP ON THE BULLETIN BOARD IF YOU CAN HELP OUT

Thank you

Dear Church Family, Words can not tell you how much your cards, calls & most of all your prayers have meant to us, during our long stay in Little Rock & our time of recovery at home. Prayers are powerful, Ray's cancer is in remission! "Praise the Lord", and his blood counts are finally normal. Again, Thank you and we love each of you. Ray & Barbara Mathis

Northside is an amazing church family. I have managed to see the hand of God at work. I will be forever grateful for your support, kindness, and love. I am grateful for the food gifts, calls, cards, & visits and especially the prayers. Thank you for your generous help while I continue to fight my cancer.

In Christian love, Sandy Lair
