The Wise Man
Built His House
Upon The Rock

As a child I remember the thrill of singing the Wise Man song – complete with sweeping hand motions. Smiles abounded as “the rains came down and the floods came up.” And who can forget the thrilling conclusion of the song “and the foolish man’s house went –SMASH!”

Upon closer inspection, it becomes clear very quickly that the story of the Wise Man is no kids’ tale. Jesus gave this illustration to adults as a final conclusion, an invitation to his sermon. The Wise Man story was a call to respond, to act, to apply his message, to DO IT.

Wise is the man who hears the words of Jesus and obeys them. Foolish is the man who hears the words of Jesus and ignores them. The choice is simple and clear: obey and be wise, ignore and be foolish.

“Therefore everyone who hears these words of mine and puts them into practice is like a wise man who built his house on the rock . . . But everyone who hears these words of mine and does not put them into practice is like a foolish man who built his house on sand” (Matthew 7:24, 26).

The faith of those who obey the words of Jesus will stand firm in the storms of life. The faith of those who ignore the words of Jesus will collapse in the storms of life. – a powerful sermon-concluding invitation, indeed!

So the next time you hear children gleefully singing the song of the Wise Man, remember the invitational call of Jesus to respond, to act, to apply his message and to DO IT! A song for children. A message for adults.
