

ANNOUNCEMENT FROM OUR ELDERS

In order to comfortably accommodate our worship attendance and still meet CDC distancing guidelines, we will be having two Sunday morning services in the main auditorium. The first service is at 8 AM and the second at 10 AM. If you would prefer, we are still doing the online stream of the service @ 10 AM and a Bible study @ 11 AM. Our Wednesday service will be at 6:30 in the Auditorium only.

Due to the present health crisis, if you plan to attend, we ask you to read the Arkansas State Health Dept. guidelines @ <https://www.healthy.arkansas.gov/programs-services/topics/covid-19-guidance-for-faith-based-organizations> and do your best to comply with these guidelines.

In the Auditorium, there will be only two doorways for entry and exit. These will be the main doorway facing Walnut Street and the breezeway door that accesses the lower parking lot. The doorway at the front of the auditorium will be for emergency exiting only. No childcare will be provided at this time, and we ask that you do not enter the educational wing of the building. Please strive to maintain 6 feet distancing between family groups as you enter and exit the building. Due to the physical distancing guidelines, you may be asked to sit away from your usual area of the auditorium so that there is room for everyone. There will be elders and deacons to assist you with entry, seating and exiting worship.

Individual communion packets can be picked up in the foyer as you enter the building. Offering plates will be available for giving in the foyer as you exit. If you have existing health problems or are over 65 years of age, then group worship may put your health at risk. If you have questions about this, please consult with your healthcare provider to see if attendance is safe for you at this time.

ISSUE NO. 43

Beacon Hill is, today, a historic district of Boston. The Massachusetts State House is located there, and it is a beautiful area of row houses, narrow streets and brick sidewalks regarded as one of the most desirable areas to live in, and correspondingly expensive! But I wonder if you know how it got its name? Between 1634-1635 a tower was built to warn the inhabitants in case of danger. This structure, the “beacon”, stood at the southeast corner of the former reservoir on Temple Street. It was a tall mast standing on cross timbers, placed on a stone foundation. To climb it, there was a series of treenails (stout wooden pegs driven into the timber), which served as hand and footholds. Sixty-five feet from the base, quite near the top, there was a cradle of iron which served to support a barrel of tar, or other inflammable material, which, when set alight, could be seen for a great distance inland. A system of towers in line of sight and on top of the highest hills is a warning system used extensively in antiquity to warn others in case of danger; Beacon Hill was one of the first of these in the Americas.

In due course, the original tower fell from an unknown cause and was reconstructed in 1768, only to be blown down once more in 1789. In 1790, a monument in brick was built to commemorate the fallen of Bunker Hill; this was 60 feet high and four in diameter. But in 1811, this was taken down when the mound on which it stood was removed.

When reading about Beacon Hill, my mind was drawn to an old hymn regularly sung at church assemblies during my childhood: “Let the Lower Lights Be Burning”. Some of the words of this hymn are: “Brightly beams our Father’s mercy from His lighthouse evermore. But to us He gives the keeping

Announcements

Beacon Hill

"of the lights along the shore. Trim your feeble lamp, my brother! Some poor sailor, tempest-tossed, trying now to make the harbor, in the darkness may be lost. Let the lower lights be burning. Send a gleam across the wave. Some poor fainting, struggling seaman you may rescue, you may save."

Jesus taught his disciples the importance of letting their lights shine. "You are the light of the world. A city on a hill cannot be hidden. Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise your Father in heaven" (Matthew 5:14-16).

May we become a Beacon Hill in our world (and in our community), shining the light of hope and salvation to those struggling against the waves of sin. Some poor fainting, struggling seaman we may rescue, we may save.
