No. 20May 15, 2019

"Perfect Timing"

Timing is very important in cooking, especially baking. Sometimes when I bake things, my timing isn't perfect and the results are less than desirable. Over the last few months, the church here has lost several members to death. Some of these were expected passings, but many were not. Although we fully believe and encourage each other with the information we find in 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, about what will happen to our faithful friends and family after death, it's usually the timing of their departure that frustrates our understanding. Why now instead of later? Or a question just as important, why later instead of now?

Buried in the book of Isaiah is a small but reassuring piece of information about God's timing and reasoning. God says to Isaiah in chapter 57:1-2 "The righteous perish, and no one takes it to heart; the devout are taken away, and no one understands that the righteous are taken away to be spared from evil. Those who walk uprightly enter into peace; they find rest as they lie in death."

God takes the righteous from this life to spare them from further exposure to evil! What a blessing to be called away—and what a risk to remain! It's so difficult to "take this to heart" or "understand" this aspect of God's plan and see things through spiritual eyes in light of eternity. But in times of loss, it does give us peace, comfort, and hope to know that God always has perfect timing.
