Watch Out!

The death of Pope Francis has caught the attention of the world. Many have noted that his posture of humility and simple living set him apart from the typical human tendency to seek comfort and status. Among other things, he chose not to live in lavish papal apartments, but rather, to live in simple accommodations in a hostel in the Vatican grounds. He urged seminarians to drive simple, old cars and encouraged bishops to be servants rather than princes.

These life-guiding principles are rare in the world. As human beings we are often trapped by the lure of selfish and lavish lifestyles, of comfort and opulence. And, although there are many things Catholic we might take issue with, his choice to live humbly and as a servant is not among them.

Jesus addressed this concern when stopped by an inheritance-seeking questioner who called out to him: “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me” (Luke 12:13). Jesus responded by warning both him and all who would listen about the dangerous lure of comfort and greed, “Watch out! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed” (Luke 12:15). We take note of Jesus’ warning and, when supported by the following scriptures, come to understand that living simply, humbly and with contentment is the way to be most pleasing to God.

“For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some people, eager for money, have wandered from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs.” --1 Timothy 6:10

“Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth... But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven... For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.” “You cannot serve both God and Money.” --Matthew 6:19–21 & 24

"Watch out! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; life does not consist in an abundance of possessions." -- Luke 12:15

All the believers were together and had everything in common. Selling their possessions and goods, they gave to anyone as he had need. --Acts 2:44-45

"Give me neither poverty nor riches, but give me only my daily bread... Otherwise, I may have too much and disown you... or I may become poor & steal." --Proverbs 30:8-9 ~ Stephen Powers

Matthew 13:9
"Those who have ears to hear, let them hear."

"I chose this name because although the picture itself is just so-so, it serves as a reminder that no matter what, we should spread the word of God. To start, the picture ties to the Parable of the Sower in how the rocks represent someone receiving the word of God happily but quickly falling away . . . Secondly, the thorns represent someone who hears the word of God, but . . . worldly troubles & distraction of money led them astray. Lastly, . . . the good soil (the grass) represents the word of God opening the eyes of someone who hears the word of God & understands it."

Prayer Requests

CURRENT

Birdell & Butch Alumbaugh, Bettye Honey's brothers, have ongoing health concerns.
Rich Bruno's friend, Chris just lost his wife to liver failure; his first wife passed away due to cancer.

Aletha Campbell's sister, Kathy Sikes, is being treated for cancer.
Lee & Rosie Campbell's grandson and Aletha's great-grandson, Bentley (11 years old) is wearing a heart monitor to determine why he is passing out.

Joe Ellis, Michele Carroll's uncle, has not improved since the procedures for his kidneys & heart. His heart is barely beating, he is in constant pain & very weak. Joe & Marsha would appreciate prayers as they take one day at a time.

Herb Lair is moving to a health rehab facility on Wednesday. Sandy will let us know the address once Herb is moved.

Tony Moats' recent blood work is showing progress.

Carolyn Seesengood's sister, Sharon, is home and doing well.

E.R. Taylor is at home recovering from knee surgery.
