Our Shoes

Stand firm then... with your feet fitted with the readiness that comes from the gospel of peace.
--Ephesians 6:14-15

In Sunday’s lesson we considered the footwear worn by First-Century Roman soldiers– equipped with stabilizing hobnails. Sure-footed shoes allow the soldier to stand his ground in battle– that he might not slip or fall when engaging the enemy. Paul uses this imagery to illustrate the Christian soldier’s footwear which provides spiritual sure-footedness and stability. Paul calls these shoes a readiness that comes from the gospel of peace. Peace is a beautiful word. In fact, one would be hard pressed to find anything more precious than a peaceful mind, a peaceful soul overflowing from a peaceful relationship with Christ. This “peace that passes understanding (Philippians 4:7)” is precious and foundational for Christians as they move and live in a chaotic and stressful world.

Peace in this troublesome world, with all its noise constantly around - mobile phones ringing, people mowing their yards, and the constant roar from the Interstate... Doesn’t peace sound a wonderful and utterly desirable thing? By the grace of God, in Arkansas we do not live in a permanent warzone; what an amazing relief this is not Gaza, or Iran, or Ukraine! Those unfortunate people who must live in such surroundings know the desperate longing for the blessing of peacefully being able to walk to buy bread without fear of being bombed, bombarded by drones or shot at. We must thank God daily for the liberty and security we mostly live in. So I turn our attention to a different sort of peace–a peace of the heart: which comes from a life turned entirely towards God; when our feet walk in the footsteps of Christ, when we see Christ in the face of each person we encounter, when we truly offer each experience, each minute of each day to God, then, and only then, can we know the wonderful peace of Christ’s presence with us everywhere, at all times. Gone are the anxiety and the stress, evaporated is the exasperation we may so easily feel, transformed are the moments when anger rises inside us, turning to shouting, swear words and bitterness towards our fellow men. God's peace drives these vices from our hearts and replaces them with a stabilizing peace. This peace from God is the transformative peace of God, the one that passes all understanding. And it will keep our hearts and minds fixed on Christ our Lord, not only today, but all the days of our life as we strive onwards.

When Christians are stabilized by peace, they can more readily stand firm in a slippery world. This is the peace we find in Christ.

Oh, how the world needs these shoes! And so do we.

The Parable of the Wheat and the Tares
Matthew 13: 24-30

"Let both grow together until the harvest, and at the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, "First gather together the tares and bind them in bundles to burn them, but gather the wheat into my barn." Matthew 13:30 (NIV)
