Broken & Blooming

"I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing." (John 15: 5)

Many trees were left broken and damaged by the recent winter snow. This tree, with its beautifully emerging blooms, recently caught my eye. Lying on the ground in the shadow of the Bradford Pear, lay a nearly severed branch in full bloom – broken and blooming.

The tree in many ways symbolizes our own lives. We, the branches, with all of our brokenness, cling to the source of life, the vine: to Jesus. Even in our brokenness we may bloom as we are so long as we remain in Him.

I am thankful for this reminder to remain in Jesus. Apart from him we can do nothing.
