ISSUE NO. 43

Stubbornness is a vice that plagues most human beings, even disciples. After The Resurrection, Jesus appeared to two of the disciples on the road to Emmaus (Luke 24). When they reported that they had seen Jesus risen and alive, the others did not believe them. Jesus rebuked the disciples for their stubbornness: “Later Jesus appeared to the Eleven as they were eating; he rebuked them for their lack of faith and their stubborn refusal to believe those who had seen him after he had risen” (Mark 16:14). The King James Version renders stubbornness as “hardness of heart”. The phrase “Stubborn as a Mule” is often used to describe that headstrong part of human nature that refuses to listen or change.

A mule is a cross between a horse and a donkey/ass; the father is the donkey and the mother the horse, whereas a ‘hinny’ is a cross between a male horse and a female donkey. It seems that it is easier to breed a mule than a hinny - no doubt explaining why mules are so much better known. Donkeys are extremely intelligent and faithful animals, and these traits can be found in the mule too; by comparison, a horse has a different type of intelligence and is more easily spooked. Because a mule is larger in size than a donkey, it was often preferred for its higher load-carrying capacity. Furthermore, mules are known for their high stamina. The famous ‘stubbornness’ of the mule is nothing much more than its intelligence being demonstrated : load a mule with too much baggage, and it will refuse to budge. You could say a mule is stubborn in knowing its own limitations. A horse can be worked until it drops, but not so with a mule. Mules are “stubborn” and will not put themselves in danger. The American Donkey and Mule society states: “The ‘stubborn’ streak is just the mule’s way of telling humans that things are not right.”

Stubbornness can be a good quality for disciples of Jesus when it is a stubbornness to be faithful, a stubbornness to “walk in the light”, or a stubbornness to yield the fruit of the Spirit in our lives. Stubbornness is a vice when we fail to listen, fail to be repentant or fail to believe and obey God’s word.

Thank you for the many prayers, cards, phone calls, visits, flowers and delicious meal provided to our family during this difficult time of loss. Your outpouring of support and comfort have been amazing. Our mother loved her Northside family and we are grateful to you all for your love to her. Also, a big thank you to those who organized and volunteered to bring a worship to Countryside. It was a blessing indeed, that Mom and others of like faith in assisted living were able to partake of worship.
