PUBLISHED ON 07/24/2024 ISSUE NO. 30

On Friday morning, July 12, a group of 16 began a journey to travel, serve, and grow together as we lived in the Story of God for 9 days. Our Mystery Mission Trip 2024 took us through cities and towns such as Saint Louis, Missouri; Michigan City, Indiana, Frankenmuth, Livonia, Pontiac, and Detroit Michigan; and Jasper and Santa Claus, Indiana. We returned home on Saturday, June 20.

Each of these trips are multi-faceted. We intend to reinforce our place in the Story of God's mission in the world, treating each day like a chapter in the Biblical Narrative from Creation to New Creation. We intend to participate with and learn about ways other people are using their gifts to make positive impacts on the world. Micah6 Community offered us a beautiful picture of how kindness and love can disrupt the ill-effects of a sin-filled world. And as well, we intend for these trips to guide us and grow us, not only individually, but even more so, together as Christ's body.

We had a wonderful trip filled with inspiration, dirt and sweat, and frequent reminders that we are God's covenant to the world (Is. 42:6). Thank you to all of you for your prayers and support. If you'd like to know more about the trip, we have a Facebook page that shares details of our journey in God's Big Story.
