No. 28 July 10, 2019

From My “Hart” to Yours

It’s an exciting week for Northside. Vacation Bible School began strong and I’m certain that we will finish blessed. I hope that it was encouraging for you to know that our police, fire department, and ambulance service went out of their way to be a part of our VBS. They are our local rescuers and we are proud of them. I am also so very proud that we have so many who wish to be involved in the lives of children, to help them see God as their greatest rescuer. There are obviously far too many people to list, so I simply want to say to Northside, “Thank you for being you. You are making a difference.”

And now, we are off to the races! Beginning Thursday Morning, our teens, along with five chaperones will be traveling to a “not yet revealed” location to participate in service projects. In one sense, this is a mission in that we work with our hands. In another sense, it is a mission as we learn through our travel what is the mission of God as told from Genesis to Revelation...and beyond. So, you could say that our trip is educational, biblical, and hands-on missional. For me, it is one of the most exciting weeks of our youth ministry. Everything that our teens learn about God and the Gospel of Jesus’ Kingdom collides in one week of intensive instruction. It is my hopeful prayer that when we return, any one of our teens would be able to tell anybody the entire missional story of God and explain their place within it. Perhaps they would be able to explain to someone else that there is a purpose through Jesus for their lives too.

Make sure you thank God for our wonderful community of faith at Northside. And please be praying for our Mystery Mission Trip Team. Maybe we will have some pictures to send to you for this Sunday morning!

From My Heart to Yours,
Jason

On the Lighter Side...

Sharing Brownies

A little boy was in a heated argument with his sister about who was going to get the last brownie. His mother overheard the loud discussion in their kitchen and came in to resolve the conflict. Her two children were obviously very distraught about getting that final treat. Sensing the need to teach a deeper truth, the mom asked her children that ever-relevant question: "What would Jesus do?" The older sibling immediately answered, "That's easy; Jesus would just break the brownie and make five thousand more!"
